Died For Duty. An example of devotion to country is found in a soldier of the French army in the war of 1750. He had wandered into the woods for a stroll, when he was ambushed by the enemy. Instantly a hundred bayonets pricked his breast, and a voice whispered, "Make the least noise and you are a dead man!" Without a second's hesitation he cried, "The enemy is here?" He fell lifeless to the ground, but 25,000 of the French army were saved. De-votion to duty had become so strong a habit that he never thought of life.
